Thanks Sonja.

Do you have a list of predicate questions for your testimony?

Hi all-

Just thought that I'd give you all a little notice about tomorrow, January 27th for your respective trials (Dave = [REDACTED] Stuart = [REDACTED] and Melissa = [REDACTED] k (I know you mentioned this may be resolved short of trial)):

Knowing that the weather tonight and tomorrow morning may not be nice, I thought that I'd inform you that the drug lab normally operates on the UMass snow schedule (i.e. if there are no classes, we don't come into the lab, and if there is a delayed opening, we normally come in when the campus opens). That does not necessarily mean that I would not be able to go to court if needed (I believe I'm on call for all of your cases). So, if you try calling the lab phone number and nobody picks up, you can try calling me on my cell: [REDACTED] Thanks.
